

Vignettes

SPARK GALLERY

New paintings by Joyce Coco

September 27 - October 21 2025

*The paintings that comprise Vignettes, my upcoming show at SPARK GALLERY,
came from looking at children's art for many years,
and being amazed at the spontaneity and the understandable story they tell.
I tried to emulate this idea by immediate application of paint,
and enclosing the vignettes in squares.
Both squares and icons come from past paintings.
I am also reminded of a statement by Lee Krasner:
"Painting is not separate from life."
All my paintings relate to my life lived.*

*Please join me for the opening reception
